

David M. Kievet

Executive Vice President Wisconsin River Valley Operations

Dave Kievet is executive vice president of The Boldt Company's Wisconsin River Valley Operations division.

Like all Boldt leaders, Kievet has learned every phase of the construction business. He has more than 21 years of experience planning and running successful projects from the idea stage through completion and maintenance.

Upon graduating from the University of Wisconsin, Kievet honed his management and leadership skills in a variety of construction opportunities in healthcare, commercial, industrial, and manufacturing projects. His ability to plan, organize, and deliver projects on time and under budget earned him a promotion to vice president of The Boldt Company.

Kievet is an active member of various industry organizations, including the American Concrete Institute (ACI), the Project Management Institute (PMI), and the Technical Association for the Pulp and Paper Industry (TAPPI).

