

James R. Lee

Group President Northern Operations

Jim Lee is group president of The Boldt Company – Northern Operations.

Lee has amassed a world of construction experience in nearly 25 years of working for The Boldt Company. He oversees operations for Boldt's projects in the Northern areas of the United States, which includes areas in Northern Wisconsin and most of the Midwest and Eastern United States. Northern Operations has grown significant experience in Power / Energy, Healthcare, Education, Food, Industrial and Commercial construction projects. He is in constant contact with his business sector leaders and project managers. Continuous Improvement is the focus of his staff with the top priority being customer satisfaction.

Lee is a graduate of Valparaiso University with a BS in Civil Engineering. Lee completed the Project Management Program at Michigan State University and the Total Quality Management Program at Fox Valley Technical College, Lee is a registered professional engineer in the state of Wisconsin.

