

Thomas J. Boldt

Chief Executive Officer

Tom Boldt is chief executive officer of The Boldt Company.

As a fourth generation leader, Boldt is very active in overseeing the diverse operations of The Boldt Company and its subsidiary companies: Boldt Consulting Services, Boldt Technical Services, and Oscar J. Boldt Construction. Oscar J. Boldt Construction is a family-owned firm which has been in operation since 1889. Boldt is headquartered in Appleton, Wisconsin, and has thirteen offices throughout the country. The company operates throughout the country with the heaviest concentration of activity in the Midwest, South, and East.

Boldt earned his BA degree from St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota, and studied at the L'Universite de Paris III and Institute Catholique in France.

Boldt received many awards including: YMCA Key Leader Award, CAP Services-Gaylord Nelson Award, Rotary Paul Harris Award, Future Leaders of Wisconsin Start Stream Award, and Wisconsin Council of Safety Hall of Fame.

His involvement in the community includes but is not limited to: Appleton Medical Center Foundation (Board Member), Wisconsin Manufacturers and Commerce (Executive Committee Member), Wisconsin Academy Foundation (President), Wisconsin Environmental Initiative (Board Member), and Appleton Junior Achievement (Senior Advisory Board).

